SHORT STOPS.

Christmas gift!
Gee whizz, how cold!
The small boy's day of glory is here.
Read our carrier boy's address and clip in.
Hey ho! No snow. Christmas comes and d. Chris go.

The courts have adjourned until the latter part of January.

Oh, for a red-hot daily paper in Clarksville. Keep your eye skinned.

Business will go on in this city next week just as though there were no holidays.

The Central Roller Mills in adding a new and valuable piece of machinery to-day.

Mortimer Burnham, a well known and popular Mississippi river pilot died last Monday.

To the CHRONICLE's little friends: Throw away the toy pistol, you are in danger of dying from lockjaw next week.

The merchants of the city are placing on the streets a very handsome line of quick delivery wagons, all of which were made by Clarksville mechanics.

A letter of authority from A. E. Stevenson to Mrs. Johnson, directs the closing of the Post-office on Monday December 26, and also on the Monday following that date.

Mr. George B. Woods the popular painter and artist of much merit has just opened a new shop on Franklin street near University Avenue. Remember him for your spring work.

County Surveyor Shelton received a slight injury on the head, by a kick from a horse, at the corner of First and Franklin street last night. The horse was frightened by fire crackers.

Mr. M. L. Rison, the artistic sign writer has just completed a very handsome job on the new delivery wagon of Crouch and Orgain, which will make its appearance on the streets to-day.

The "Tennessee Globe," a new horse in the arena, with J. D. Andrews at the bit, was a welcome visitor to the CHRONICLE this week. It is published at Hartsville and is full of news and business.

Owing to a new postal regulation, hereafter the postoffice officials will collect one cent for each advertised letter when called for Parties asking for letters that have been advertised will bear this in mind.

The wood market of Clarksville was fairly glutted on Wednesday last. There were fully twenty wagons, each one size smaller than a boys toy box, standing on First street, ready to sell out their contents at one dollar per load.

Clarksville Lodge of the Knights of Honor, enjoyed a royal supper last Thursday night, which included oysters, roast turkey and other goodies. The members of our home lodge are a jovial set and equal to any set in our city.

The Masons of Clarksville are preparing to give a banquet at Tobacco Exchange Tuesday evening, at which there will be three hundred plates at table. It will be the grandest social event that has occurred in this city for a long time.

The CHRONICLE to-day places at its mast head the name of Mr. R. H. Polindexter as a candidate for Alderman in the Fourth ward. Look out for him, for he is a regular whizzing Dick and will "get there" if somebody don't head him off.

The Franklin Market of which Chief Kleeman of the fire department is "boss" is to-day one of the most handsomely decorated places in Clarksville. The display of fine meat is one of the best ever seen in this country. Go see it sure.

St. Mary's school gave a very pleasing entertainment last night, (Friday) in which the scholars took part and executed their characters in most excellent style. It will be difficult to imagine anything that may occur in the Christmas line that can near equal it.

The stores along Franklin street are dressed in their best "bibb and tuck" to-day, and everybody should visit them. Capt. Crum has added to the attractions of his business place by a fine selection of plants and flowers from his famous Evergreen Lodge.

A new ice factory on First street, between Strawberry and Main, is going to be a very substantial building, three stories high and when completed will be an ornament to that locality. The work is going ahead lively under contractor Ledbetter, with Geo. Buck in the van of the masonry.

The ladies of the Methodist church gave a very fine dinner and supper at the old store of Fox & Smith last Thursday evening was styled the "Rainbow Supper" and the room was handsomely decorated in all the colors of that beautiful watercolor. The proceeds were for the benefit of the M. E. Church.

Recent improvements: M. H. Clark & Brother have generously caused a stout pair of stairs to be placed between Spring street and the Franklin House. The street railway has placed in a new turn table in front of this office. Several sidewalks and street crossings have been laid during the past week.

The court-house at Mayfield, Graves county, Ky., was burnt last Sunday morning, together with the county records. The town has no fire apparatus, and the building was doomed from the beginning. The County Judge offers a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who set it on fire.

Picturesque Clarksville, the only thorough, accurate and complete history of the people, places and things of this city is in the binders hands and will be on sale to-day. Nothing nicer could be selected for a Christmas gift. Every body should call at the CHRONICLE office and order a copy.

During the coming week the boys and young men who desire to sport with the festive fire cracker will confer a favor on the general public by not throwing the noisy things under or near animals that are attached to vehicles. Everybody likes fun, but there is no necessity of having it at other peoples expense.

Officer Stafford, of the police force, received a message from Hopkinsville to the effect that John Henry, alias Skinner, etc., who was captured here last week, had been convicted in the courts there. A letter from the officials of penitentiary made the fact apparent that Henry had escaped from that place a few days before he committed his recent crime.

The Louisville Commercial, of yesterday, produced a flaming special dispatch from Hopkinsville stating that a howling mob was on its way from Hopkinsville to Clarksville for the purpose of lynching Robert Bigbee. If the Commercial and its Hopkinsville correspondent would consult a map, they would discover that Guthrie is not in Tennessee.

A Very Pleasant Wedding.

The auditorium of the Presbyterian church was comfortably filled last Thursday afternoon, with people to witness the nuptials uniting for life Mr. John H. Macrae and Miss Mary A. Howerton, both of whom are well known and much beloved by this community. The ceremony was most pleasingly administered by Rev. J. W. Lupton, and the happy couple sensibly remained at home to spend their honeymoon. Mr. F. W. Macrae, a brother to the groom and Mr. A. H. Wallace, a relative were present upon the occasion.

A Serious Shooting Affair.

To the Chronicle:

John W. Waller, who resides in Montgomery county, Tenn., about four miles from this place, was shot by some unknown person last Monday morning at 11:30 on the streets of this place. He had just started for home and while passing the livery stable of Robert Bigbee, was twice fired upon by someone secreted in the stable. Eleven No. 1 buckshot entering his left arm, and sixteen, his left side from the second. He cannot recover, but at present is still alive. Robert Bigbee owner of the stable from which the shots were fired, was arrested on circumstantial evidence, but nothing has been proven thus far.

A search was made for the gun, but it cannot be found. The men had been on bad terms for a year or more, but nothing of serious nature was expected. Both parties have good reputations.

Guthrie, Ky., December 22, 1887.

LATER—Waller died at 1:30 o'clock Friday morning. Robert Bigbee, whom it is alleged shot him, has disappeared and the country is now being scoured for his apprehension.

Habitual Constipation

Any kidney and liver ills, depending on a weak or inactive condition of the kidneys, liver or bowels, are successfully and permanently cured only by the use of the gentle yet offensive laxative and diuretic, Syrup of Figs. Its advantages are evident; it is easily taken, pleasing to the taste, acceptable to the stomach, harmless to the most delicate system, and truly beneficial in effect. For sale in 50 cents and $1.00 bottles by all leading druggists.

Beach, F. R.; M. C. Northington, T.; Simon Katz, Guide; R. B. Page, Guard; T. H. Jackson, Sentinel; Dr. A. M. Trawick, Md. Exar.; Clay Stacker, M. A. Stratton, M. V. Ingram, Trustees. F. F. Fox, Representative to Grand Lodge; Fred L. Smith, Alternate Representative.

THOMPSON'S glove fitting corsets, the easiest and best ever worn, in all sizes. A full line of ladies underwear of the best makes and most handsome patterns at Howerton and Macrae's, corner First and Franklin streets.

"Oppress not nature, sinking down to rest, With feasts too late, too solid, or too full."

Armstrong when he wrote these lines, gave good scientific advice. Half of our people suffer from dyspepsia in some of its many forms. Life becomes a burden, and business worries annoy. The "Golden Medical Discovery," invented and prepared by Dr. Pierce, is an effectual remedy for indigestion. By druggists.
